Minutes from the Previous Meeting

Minutes from the previous meeting were read and approved.

Treasurer's Report

- No report; treasurer absent. But it was noted that $86 from eBay sales will be donated to the club.

Correspondence: Three emails received, nothing sent.

Committee Reports: None.

Announcements:

- Upcoming coin shows: Castle Shannon, May 17, June 28, July 12, August 9; PAN, May 28-30; Greensburg (N. Huntingdon/Circleville), June 14. Larger national shows: Cincinnati, June 4-6; and of course, the ANA here in Pittsburgh, August 24-29.
- The ANA has sold 250 tables for the August show.

Old business:

- The June 2 meeting at the Heinz History Center on June 2 will be for members. But at any other time, any WPNS member may bring up to seven additional guests for free admission, due to our relationship with the HHC. Separately, due to a major grant, all children are entitled to free admission.

New business:

- For the PAN show, we still need someone to man our table.

Presentation – Ryan Spak, "Coins of World War 2 Struck by U.S. Mint".

Adjourned at 8:45.

Minutes submitted by Stuart Strickland, Recording Secretary.
